

The California Genealogical Society and Library and the
Oakland Regional Family History Center
Present a one day repeat of the

Beginning Genealogy Series

This Beginning Series will be held on one Saturday only.

When : April 18 9A –4P

Where : California Genealogical Society.
2201 Broadway Suite LL2, Oakland, CA

Class is limited to 30 participants.

Free parking in the lot behind the building.

Fee is $15 for cost of materials and Continental Breakfast 8:30 to 8:55

Classes Schedule:

8:30 - 9:00 Registration and coffee

9:00 - 10:30 Intro to the Science of Genealogy – Marge Bell

Class includes terminology, forms, software programs, family survey, and organization.

10:30 – 12:00 Secondary Survey – Jane Lindsey

Class will discuss digital catalogs, finding what has been done, using familysearch.org, and some other sites as well as locating Surname books

12:00 - 1:00 BREAK FOR LUNCH -

1:00 – 2:30 Vital Records and the Calendar Change - Marge Bell

Class will introduce both on-line and traditional ways of locating and using records of birth marriage and death at the state, county and town levels and will cover the calendar change of 1752

2:30 – 4:00 Census Records Including State Census - Dick Rees

The 8 class Intermediate Series will follow. It will be offered as before on Tuesday or Saturday but will be consolidated into four consecutive weeks with two classes offered at each session.

See Intermediate Series Flyer

-----
Please register me for the Beginning Genealogy Series April 18 at the CGS Library 2201 Broadway, Oakland, CA

Name _____

E-mail _____

Check for $15 enclosed _____

Send to Oakland Regional FHC, 4766 Lincoln Ave, Oakland, CA 94602 Attn: Marge Bell